

A serene winter landscape featuring a calm river that reflects the sky and the surrounding snow-covered trees. The scene is peaceful and quiet, with the water acting as a perfect mirror for the white, frosty environment. The trees on both banks are heavily laden with snow, their branches creating a delicate, lace-like pattern against the pale sky. The overall atmosphere is one of stillness and tranquility, evoking a sense of longing and contemplation.

Mi corazón, Señor, se siente insatisfecho.
Yo busco libertad y amor;
busco verdad y belleza;
busco la paz y la justicia...
y mi corazón no te encuentra.

Como busca la cierva agua cristalina
así mi alma te busca a ti, Dios mío.
Mi corazón tiene sed de ti, Dios vivo;
¿cuándo serás tú mi verdad y mi belleza,
mi libertad y mi paz?
